BELLES OF THE BALL

The 2013 Bal des Débutantes, in Paris, presented 20 glamorous young women to international society. Each arrived at the Automobile Club de France, on the Place de la Concorde, with a dashing cavalier at her side, and fitted in haute couture. Proud parents, esteemed friends, and a handful of the ball's longtime supporters—including its founder, Ophélie Renouard—dined, danced, and cocktailled among this generation's newly anointed jet set.

Cavaliers H.R.H. Prince Amaury of Bourbon-Parma, of France, and Marquis Giorgio Sanjust di Teulada, of Italy.

Lauren Marbe, in Anne Valérie Hash, with cavalier Théodore Rousseau, of France.
